New Sign Installed on Taft

Thanks to a generous donation from Sally McCoy Garland, a new sign for McCoy Farm & Gardens was designed, crafted and installed at 1604 Taft Highway. Now everyone can more easily identify the entrance to the walking trail and the interior gravel parking area. Thank you very much Sally!

Celebration for Mountain Education Foundation

On Saturday, September 23, the Mountain Education Foundation held the fall fund-raiser at McCoy Farm & Gardens with former University of TN football coach, Philip Fulmer, as the featured guest. A tremendous crowd of 650 filled the house and grounds as they enjoyed tasty hors d'oeuvres and a silent auction. Mr. Fulmer delivered an inspirational talk sheltered under a magnificent tent that filled the apple orchard area. The front porch of the McCoy house was beautifully decorated and lighted, and the celebration was a big success.

Concert on the Lawn

Friends enjoyed listening to the music of Pierce Pettis at a picnic supper on Friday evening, September 22nd. He played from a new ingenious stage built by Andy Jones near the cutting/heeling-in garden. The supper concert was a refreshing experience that hopefully will be repeated with other artists.

Thrasher 5th graders had a great educational and fun field trip at McCoy Farm & Gardens on Friday, September 29th. They will return on November 3rd to present a Living History Museum open to the community. We hope you will attend. This fine presentation was a very popular event last year for both the students and their audiences. Contact Thrasher Elementary for exact program details.
